Cotton Pickers Crown Queen with Ceremony

With courtly pomp and ceremony, Mrs. Arline Anderson was crowned queen of the Cotton Pickers Square Dance Club last Saturday night. Escorted by her husband, Walt, Queen Arline led the procession. The crown bearer was the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norm Blagg. In squares the other members of the queen's procession followed to the throne where Queen Arline was crowned by John Murphy, president of the Cotton Pickers.

At the conclusion of the coronation ceremony, Walt and Arline Anderson did the round dance, Silk and Satin, followed by the entire group doing a popular square dance called Queen of the Square Dance Ball.

Beginning her reign as square dance queen, Arline Anderson will visit many square dance clubs throughout the area.

Largest group attending the coronation ceremony and dance was the Wagon Wheel Square Dance Club. Others who attended were Square Links, Hi Tides and Happy Squares.

Next social event on the calendar for the group will be the Cotton Pickers Ball at Sportsman's Park, May 20.

Warriors Meet Valley For 2nd Links Match

First division golfers from El Camino College teed off with L.A. Valley Monday, at Balboa Park in the second meeting between the two clubs this year. El Camino won the first 49-5.

After knocking off a highly-regarded East L.A. six-man aggregation on Palos Verdes links last week 40 to 14, El Camino has to win all the rest of this year's matches to finish second in the conference. An odd combination of El Camino losses and an odd combination of other team's win could mean third for ECC.

High medalist honors for El Camino were shared by Spencer Beard, Les Warr, and John Kelly against East L.A., all shot 80 rounds. Earlier the Warriors brushed off a poor Harbor squad for the second time this year 53 to 1. The two consecutive victories left El Camino with a 6 and 4 record on the year.
